The Midnight
Mission

Making a Difference Since 1914

Midnight Mission Clothing Drive

Established in 1914, the Midnight Mission is one of the oldest continuously operating human services organizations in the Los Angeles region. Centered in the Skid Row area of downtown Los Angeles, the Mission runs one of the most efficient direct service operations in the country. They offer a bridge to self-sufficiency for homeless people through counseling, education, training and job placement. They also make available the necessities of life to homeless people: food, shelter, clothing, personal hygiene needs, and medical care. The Mission serves homeless people with empathy and respect, without sermonizing.

Start collecting men, women, and children's clothes. We will have trucks on site.

“Being unwanted, unloved, uncared for, forgotten by everybody, I think that is a much greater hunger, a much greater poverty than the person who has nothing to eat.”

- Mother Teresa

Masonic Trivia

Music written by Brother John Stafford Smith (1750-1836) of Inverness Lodge #4 in London, at one time, was used by an Irish Masonic Orphans' Home as their song. Later it became a popular drinking song for many years known as To Anacreon in Heaven. Then, some years later, the music was adopted by Francis Scott Key to which he wrote the words to our National Anthem, The Star Spangled Banner.
