MASONS ON Parade!

Each 4th of July, our Los Angeles area Masonic Lodges recognize our Country's Birthday by participating in two separate Independence Day Parades.

Organized by Old West Lodge No. 813, the Grand Master will be leading the Masonic Unit in the annual Santa Clarita Parade, with the local area Masons, Youth Groups and the Los Angeles Commandery No. 9 marching in their Masonic regalia. It commences at 9:00 A.M. To participate, meet beforehand (7:30 A.M.) at Old West Lodge. Contact Gerald Chandler at (661) 251-9265 for more details.

A smaller, more family-oriented celebration is the annual Pacific Palisades Parade. Riviera Lodge No. 780 and the other West-side Masonic Lodges annually provide a Masonic contingent in this Parade, including a Schoolhouse float carrying members of the local Masonic Youth Groups. The Parade starts at 2:00 P.M., with the Masonic Unit forming at 1:00 P.M. on Via de la Paz. Contact Bill Branch at (310) 454-2054 for further details.

Los Angeles Scottish Rite is having its 6th Annual Festive Board, honoring Most Worshipful Larry Adamson, on July 10th. See the attached Flyer.

SHARING OUR MASONIC HERITAGE

Grand Lodge is proud to announce the launching of its new website, www.masonicheritage.org, providing on-line access to its Library Collection and the virtual viewing of its extensive collection of Museum items. Its Henry Wilson Coil Library & Museum of Freemasonry is dedicated to preserving and sharing our Masonic heritage. This website now offers both a library and a museum experience to a worldwide audience, tracing the history of Freemasonry and the Fraternity's role in the development of California.

This Grand Lodge Library & Museum is named after noted Masonic author and Brother Henry Wilson Coil. Founded in 1996 with a generous contribution from Henry Wilson Coil, Jr., the library and museum collections and archives cover centuries of Masonic history as well as more than 150 years of Freemasonry in California.

Check out the website – enrich your Masonic experience!

ANNOUNCEMENT

All five Courses in the Lodge Management Certification Program are now fully implemented on-line, for upcoming officers to gain the tools and training to effectively manage their Lodge. Access Leadership Development under Member Center at www.freemason.org.

Members In Need

If you are aware of Masons in your Lodge who are struggling due to the troubled economy, please advise your Master. He is presently being requested by our Grand Lodge to advise them of hardship issues in our fraternal family, to assist the Masonic Homes Board of Trustees in determining needs for expanded services.
