New Grand Family

Congratulations are in order to several of our Los Angeles area Masons on their being elected and/or selected by our new Grand Master, Most Wor. Kenneth Nagel, to be part of his Grand Officer Team for the Masonic Year 2009-2010. We are pleased to recognize Brothers John Lowe (Aliso Viejo) as Jr. Grand Warden, Charles Cross (Anaheim) as Grand Bible Bearer, Joe Ryland (Temple City) as Junior Grand Deacon, John Spear (Moreno Valley) as Jr. Grand Steward, and Richard Pierce (Los Angeles) as Grand Pursuivant, along with continuing Brothers Bill Bray, Deputy Grand Master; Glenn Woody, Grand Treasurer; Vernon Dandridge, AGL Div. 5; Doug Eichen, AGL Div. 7; Jack Rose, AGL Div. 8; and Stephen Miller, Grand Organist.

PLANS FOR THE FUTURE

The Nob Hill Masonic Center has plans for a significant upgrade in the near future, affecting the Auditorium, Lobby area, California Room and Exhibition Hall. The most dramatic change will be to the Auditorium. To increase usage and improve flexibility of the 50 year old venue, the fixed seating on the main floor of the auditorium will be removed and replaced with multiple terraced floor levels, to allow for seated and standing viewing, as well as cabaret and table seating. The fixed seating in the balcony will remain. Stay tuned for further announcements!

First Inspector Academy Class!

The Inaugural Class of the newly-established Inspectors Development Academy (IDA) is shown above, following their graduation after several intensive week-end training periods during 2009. The IDA is a new Grand Lodge Program designed to identify leaders in our Fraternity and train them as future Inspectors. The participants are selected through recommendations and trained via classroom presentations, outside assignments, group discussions, and hands-on participation.

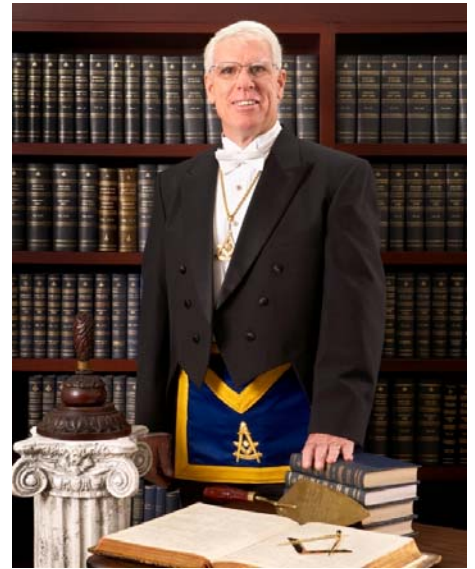

This program is being offered in separate northern and southern sessions in California. Pictured above is the 2009 Class with its Instructors from the southern sessions.
