DON'T MISS THE 2012 ANNUAL SYMPOSIUM!

The Emergence of Speculative Masonry will be the fascinating subject of the 12th Annual California Masonic Symposium, to be presented here in Southern California on Sunday, July 1st at the Pasadena Scottish Rite Cathedral. This is your chance to delve into the early days of Freemasonry and follow its development into the fraternity as we know it today.

Again having this annual California Masonic Symposium close to home is a great opportunity to hear three distinguished Masonic scholars on this very interesting Masonic subject, guided by the research of Dr. Trevor Stewart, PhD., this year's Henry Wilson Coil Lecturer. They will be joined by a panel of Masonic experts, Maria Eugenia Vasquez Semadeni, PhD., John L. Cooper III, PhD., and Past Grand Master R. Stephen Doan as part of the program.

It is open to Masons and the public at no charge, but you are asked to complete a registration form found on the Grand Lodge Web Site, under “Masonic Education”.

 NOTICE *****

The Grand Lodge Management Certification Program (LMCP) now offers a new on-line course to Lodge Officers, entitled “Member Experience”. Check it out!

Youth Orders Month Observed by L. A. Service Bureau

In recognition of our Grand Lodge's Youth Orders Month and to show our continuing appreciation and affection for the Masonic Youth Groups in California, our Service Bureau again welcomed and honored three outstanding leaders of the Jobs Daughters, Rainbow and Demolay youth organizations, at our most recent Bureau Meeting on April 29th.

Miss Darcy Yates, former Miss Calif. Jobs Daughters 2009-10, Miss Jessica Fallon, Grand Worthy Associate Advisor, Rainbow for Girls; and Bro. Joseph Musgrove (EA), Jurisdiction Congress Secretary, So. California Demolay (pictured above with Board President Michael Bear, left) were welcomed, and each offered beautifully-presented talks on their activities and the importance and closeness of our Masonic relationships.

It was impressive to see how accomplished these youth leaders were in their presentations, and it was touching to hear them meaningfully emphasize the importance of Masonry and its teachings in their lives. In appreciation, monetary donations were given to each youth leader, to support their group projects.

California Lodges are being encouraged to apply for the Mark Twain Masonic Awareness Award emphasizing activities that create a positive Masonic identity in your community. Visit the “msana.com/twainaward” to register.
